Update No. 3 – Registration Now Accepted

Membership Registration

We are now accepting financial contributions in the form of associate membership fees to finance the first stage of a prospective legal action which is essentially the fees for expert advice from a QC on the matter. Please go to this page of our web site for details on associate membership and how to support this Group:

Current Directors

The current directors of the RBOS Shareholders Action Group are Roger Lawson, Michael Fox and Rachel Walsh. If you wish to get more actively involved in the organisation and have a financial interest in RBS then please contact Roger Lawson as we need more people to get involved actively in this Group. Please telephone 020-8467-2686 for further information.

Other Groups

You may be aware that there are other groups that claim to be pursuing legal actions against RBS, particularly in respect of the rights issue. What differentiates our group from those? One difference is that our Group is under the control of shareholders in RBS and is not being organised or managed by lawyers. We believe it is important that shareholders should have control of such "Action Groups" to enable costs to be minimised and to avoid any possibility of the claim being pursued when it has little merit, or is unlikely to be beneficial to shareholders in RBS. Also it ensures that we can select the best legal team available.
